NEW FUNDS TO JOBLESS SUBSCRIBED

One Family In Want; 29 Men Are Given Week's Work

New subscriptions totaling $150 monthly for the unemployment relief fund in Redwood City during the past week were reported Monday at a meeting of the central committee in charge of the systematic solicitation of jobs for local unemployed.

Twenty-nine men have been employed during the past week, during which time a total of 69 days' work, or 552 hours, has been provided, according to the report made by Elmer M. Rowland, registrar.

Rowland stated that there are 311 men in need of work who are registered at his office, and that there were 15 additional registrations during the week.

Sources of work were as follows: County, 50 days; city, 11 days; odd jobs, 8 days.

It has been necessary, Rowland said, to provide food for one family in extreme want.

Carl B. Stoner, who presided at the meeting in the absence of Carl Wagner, chairman, again requested public response to the committee's plea for more odd jobs and for monthly pledges which are needed to create employment.

The committee will hold its next meeting Monday at 4 p. m. at the office of Charles G. Lambert, 2013 Broadway.

La Honda Road Facing Delay

Only 70 Per Cent Of Rights Of Way Secured

Little hope that any work will be started on the La Honda road project this fall appeared in prospect today, despite the call for bids Monday by the board of supervisors.

The principal obstacle is the lack of rights of way for the improved highway, with but 70 per cent of the property owners willing to give up their frontages without being reimbursed.

The other 30 per cent demand damages, County Surveyor James S. James said today. James said he would call the bids and try to secure the necessary rights of way at once.

Another obstacle is the decision of County Auditor Edward M. Stack not to honor any warrants for claims against the $25,000 La Honda road item in the 1931-32 budget until the six months' period allowed by law for protesting the item expires on October 20.

Even if no further protests are made against the levy, Stack said he would not pay out one cent until the two suits seeking to test the legality of the county's tax rate are settled or dropped, in order to protect himself.

Rights of way have been secured for the Memorial Park road, James said, but the same question as to the legality of the $30,000 levy has been raised in the La Honda road case.

Burlingame Tax Down 11 Cents

BURLINGAME, July 19.—A tax cut of 11 cents, but a raise in the assessed valuation, is provided for in a tentative budget released today by City Treasurer Frank Bloom. The budget has been reduced about $22,000 under last year's.

Reductions were made in the police judge, city attorney and building inspector's salaries, while adjustments were made in other salaries so that a small sum will be given over each month to unemployment relief.

The tentative tax rate is $1.46, compared to $1.57 a year ago. The assessed valuation is $11,000,000.

CRAFTS SHOWS PLAYING MENLO PARK

Craft's Greater Shows will exhibit for six days and nights at Menlo Park under the auspices of the Menlo Park Post American Legion No. 443, starting Tuesday night, July 26. Show grounds will be located on the highway. A battery of high powered searchlights will be used as beacons to the show grounds and are visible for thirty miles.

STAFFORDS TO LEAVE

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stafford leave on Monday for Lake Tahoe to spend a vacation of two weeks. Mrs. Stafford is the efficient and courteous deputy in the San Mateo county tax collector's office.

Mercury has been known for at least 2500 years, but its wide use is a development of recent centuries.

Club Objects To Charter Change

Plan Of Appointing Officers Opposed; Candidates Talk

The bi-monthly meeting of the Redwood City Homebuilders' Club, of precinct 15, was held at the home of the president, Mrs. H. McCleary, 903 Madison street, Tuesday. The early part of the meeting was devoted to speeches by candidates for public office. The following men spoke: H. W. Call, G. S. Whitehead, Paul McCarthy, C. M. Frey, Willis Frost and Wesley Haydock.

The business meeting was occupied with a discussion of the new San Mateo county charter. Ben Rodgers and Robert O'Connell, representing the Selby Lane Homebuilders' Club, brought to the attention of the meeting that the new charter, as planned to date, proposed to change several of the elective county offices to appointive offices. The Selby Lane men protested this contemplated change and suggested that steps be taken to inform the framers of the new charter of the opposition that exists toward any infringement on the right of the people to elect their own public servants.

J. R. Maben expressed the sentiment that it would be much more desirable to make any proposed changes in the charter before it was submitted to a vote of the people, than it would be to attempt to make changes after a possible adoption by the people. J. Smith elaborated further upon this theme.

Maben then put the question, in form of a motion, before the meeting. He asked that a committee be appointed to appear before the meeting of the freeholders this evening, to protest the changing of several county offices from elective to appointive offices. The motion was seconded and carried.

Wesley Haydock, candidate for assemblyman from San Mateo county, was asked by the club to present its suggestions to the freeholders. Haydock accepted and met with the following committee at the courthouse this evening: Jack Reuter, H. H. Eaton, J. Smith and J. R. Maben.

The club took in four new members last night: R. C. Marcus, W. Mitchell, W. Haydock and D. Conine. G. P. Filbert, vice-president of the club, presided at the meeting last night.

The Selby Lane branch will meet Thursday night at 8 at the corner of Randol and Santa Clara avenue.

Hughes Family Back From Trip To East

Mr. and Mrs. Merton Hughes and their young son arrived from the East this week after having traveled 9,000 miles in their automobile. They toured the country, enjoying every mile of the scenery. Mr. Hughes declares that there is a decided trend all over the East for the reelection of Herbert Hoover. He asserts that the voters can see no reason for a change at this time when business is picking up and the prices of commodities are beginning to rise. Mr. Hughes is quite certain that Mr. Hoover will be continued in office.

Council Studying Suggested Reductions In City Budget;

Warning against the dangers of graft and special privilege which arise from underpaid officials, John E. Layton and Francis T. May addressed a letter to the city council Monday night urging that no reductions be made in salary or personnel of the police department.

Both declared it necessary to make whatever reductions the council finds possible, but they declared it not an economical move to do so to an extent that crime and lawlessness cannot be safely combated.

"We have a clean city and a clean government. Let us keep it that way," they wrote.

With the filing of the letter, there followed a general discussion by the council on the recommendations of the property owners' division of the Redwood City Real Estate Board as to reductions suggested at last week's public meeting.

Mayor William J. Dusel and the members of the council agreed to go into a detailed study of each of the proposed reductions at an early meeting.

Paving Thought Advisable
Speaking of the real estate committee's proposed elimination of a $1000 item for paving Chestnut street at the Bayshore highway, Councilman Lambert said that this could never be done any cheaper since the cement plant had tentatively agreed to supply the material.

"It is a question of spending $1,000 now to help the unemployed workers of our city, or else of waiting a couple of years and spending $2,500," he said.

Councilman George McNulty also believed this item was a merited one, saying: "If we don't help the unemployed this way, we will be

CO. CHARTER PROVISIONS ARE ARGUED

Club Delegates Told Of Savings It Will Mean

Representatives from the San Mateo Co. Federation of Improvement Clubs and Associations filled the Supervisor's Chambers at the Board of Freeholders' meeting held at Redwood City Wednesday to ask many questions on the proposed county charter now being prepared.

Opposition was voiced by Jack Reuter of the Redwood City Home Builders Club and F. B. Allen of North Palo Alto, on the action taken by the board of freeholders providing for the appointment of a number of county offices instead of elective as at the present.

Chairman James B. Howell of the board of freeholders pointed out that the charter would be in complete tentative form by July 29th and that public hearings will be granted following the completion of this tentative charter. Mr. Howell explained that organizations can secure copies of this tentative charter by August 3rd.

Chairman Howell pointed out that the charter when in full operation would save the taxpayers of San Mateo county a quarter of a million dollars a year because of the organization of the county government proposed under the charter.

Chairman Howell emphasized the necessity of segregating the legislative and administrative offices and for that reason all administrative offices should be appointed by the chief executive. Professor Cottrell of Stanford University reiterated this statement of Mr. Howell's pointing out that this is the modern trend in the efficient management of governmental affairs.

Following the hour conference with the improvement clubs the Board of Freeholders then went into a closed session to complete further business on the proposed charter.

At this closed session the Board of Freeholders by unanimous action decided to provide in the charter for 5 justice courts instead of 8 as at the present. There would be 5 judicial townships in the county which would be coterminous with the 5 supervisorial districts. The Justices of Peace would be elected by the people of the respective townships for a period of 4 years. Their salaries would be determined by the Board of Supervisors and provided for in the annual salary appropriation ordinance to be passed by the Supervisors. The constables it was previously decided would be ex-officio deputy sheriffs and appointed by the sheriff. By the setting up of 5 judicial townships this would mean that there would be 5 constables instead of 8 as at the present time.

Under this arrangement of the judicial system of the county Chairman Howell pointed out that it would effect a saving to the citizens of approximately $10,000 per year.

The Board of Freeholders also decided last evening that the county chief executive shall have

Parkman Gives Out Statement

Harry L. Parkman of San Mateo, who has represented San Mateo county in the assembly for the past six years and who is now a candidate for state senator at Sacramento, has just returned from an organization in Sacramento of the Special Advisory Committee which is studying city, county and state taxes with a view to making recommendations to the next legislature.

This committee's tremendous importance is pointed out by Parkman, because its duty will be to help the 1933 legislature "balance the budget." Parkman said that he is and has been definitely pledged to keeping down the costs of government, and his three terms as a member of the Ways and Means Committee, which is one of the most powerful in the legislature, have given him the opportunity to oppose every appropriation that he did not believe was warranted.

Parkman points out that his experience will be invaluable to the people he represents in the work of trimming and balancing the budget to fit the present "lean" years.

He estimates that there will be 31 legislators with whom he has worked and nearly all are personally friendly to him. This acquaintance, Parkman says, will mean a great deal in securing results.

H. C. Tuchen, inheritance tax appraiser, has filed an inventory and appraisal in the estate of W. H. Talbot, deceased. The total value of the vast estate is placed at $8,991,220.78. The estate consists of real property, bonds, stocks and cash in bank.

For many years Mr. Talbot resided in Redwood City. He had a beautiful home in the Robinson tract, formerly the property of Horace Hawes.

CUTTING OF 'MUMS DUE NEXT WEEK

$400,000 Industry Is Marked By Change In Control

The first cutting of chrysanthemums for the season of 1932, a $400,000 industry centering at Redwood City, will occur early next week.

Since last year some very important changes and improvements have been made in this industry. On April 6, 1932, there was incorporated an association of growers, known as the California Chrysanthemum Growers' Association, with headquarters in the Dosssee building in Redwood City. At a little later date, J. I. Rikimaru, an experienced traffic and market man, was chosen as manager of the association. Mr. Rikimaru moved with his family to Redwood City and has been in charge of the affairs of the association for several months past.

200 Cars Last Year
Last year about 200 carloads of chrysanthemums were shipped from Redwood City and adjacent territory in which chrysanthemums are grown commercially. This territory includes acreage on either side of El Camino Real from San Mateo to Mountain View. The retail value of the 200 carloads shipped last year was about $400,000. The shipments this year will be slightly less because the output was purposely restricted.

With the beginning of shipments next week, returns of the crops will begin to flow in to this territory. The income is very largely spent to maintain the 200 people and their families engaged in this industry, and the upkeep of their premises, buildings, equipment, improvements, etc.

Conditions Better
"Growing conditions are much better this year," said Mr. Rikimaru, manager of the association. "For one thing, growers adopted a plan of spacing plants further apart. This is producing much better flowers. Also the weather has been practically ideal this year."

Chrysanthemum growing is an industry which can be greatly extended and developed in and about Redwood City when sufficient water is available from Hetch Hetchy at a reasonable rate. In normal years there is always an unlimited market for the flowers in the Southern States. It is expected that chrysanthemum growing will reach a gross of one million in the Redwood City territory within the next few years.

The following are the officials of the association: K. Inouye, president, Redwood City; T. Oishi, vice president, San Francisco; S. A. Ishida, secretary, Menlo Park; S. Yamada, treasurer, Redwood City; M. Watanabe, Redwood City; T. Imai, Mountain View, and T. Mori, San Carlos, are the directors.

CAMPAIGN UNDERWAY TO BOOST BUSINESS OF LOCAL STORES

By HOWARD I. WOOD
Manager, Redwood City Chamber of Commerce

Americans have been waiting for a miracle to pull them out of the hole. They have thought that by some governmental hocus-pocus, or some stroke of genius on the part of a still unknown Henry Ford, the scene could be turned back to days of progress and prosperity.

Now it is dawning upon many people that "the way out" is to be found in our own thinking, in our own communities, and nowhere else.

Through the generous sponsorship of the First National Bank, and with the endorsement and co-operation of the chamber of commerce, Redwood City has embarked upon a "Trade in Redwood City" movement. This movement bears all the earmarks of a splendid success. Carried to its logical outcome, it can mean the difference between drooping business and sprightly, profitable business.

To make the movement an outstanding success requires only one thing—the whole-hearted co-operation of every business in Redwood City. Fortunately, it appears that this aim will be largely realized.

Redwood City's Loss
Why this campaign is being conducted, and why it has a most remarkable importance to the entire community, can be found in the following comparison of Redwood City with another community of about the same size:

Another city—population, 8,245; stores, 213; employees, 883; sales, $11,561,000; salary, $1,038,000.

Redwood City—population, 8,942; stores, 119; employees, 458; sales, $5,467,000; salary, $539,000.

O'Keefe Returns From Europe Trip

James T. O'Keefe, the local attorney, returned from his European trip Saturday evening, tired out, but enthusiastic about the journey to the old world. He visited Ireland, Paris, London and Belgium. Mr. O'Keefe attended the Eucharistic Congress in Dublin, there witnessing the grandest sight of the trip.

Mr. O'Keefe visited the home where his parents were born in County Kerry, not far from the Lakes of Killarney. He paid his respects to Blarney Castle but refrained from kissing it, but his son, James T. O'Keefe Jr., did.

A. McSweeney, the tax collector, who was a member of the party, will return home early next week. James T. O'Keefe Jr. will visit Rome, Berlin and other places on the continent before returning, which will be about August 15.

Mr. O'Keefe enjoyed the trip. He found business booming in Ireland. He believes the depression has gone and that soon a wave of prosperity will be experienced in this country.

Offices Opened By Buck Club

Headquarters for the Judge Buck Club have been located at 325 B street, San Mateo, in the Lowe-Zwiler Building. The club is sponsored by a large group of prominent voters throughout the county, who are interested in the reelection of Judge Buck as Superior Judge to department No. 1.

It is planned to canvass the entire county with the headquarters as a center of operation. A representative of the club is in the office at all times during the day and any person interested in the campaign is urged to call.

Telephone service has been installed, the number being San Mateo 5678.

BACK FROM VACATION

Miss Mura Stilleon, one of the pretty and efficient deputies in the county clerk's office, has returned from her vacation, spent in the State Park, Santa Cruz county. Like all young ladies who go on vacations, she has returned with a nice coating of tan, which adds to her girlish complexion.

TRAFFIC AT FIVE POINTS IS BUSIEST

El Camino Real Still Carries Most Of Peninsula Cars

Redwood City's busiest intersection is Five Points, according to a state and county survey taken recently and compiled today by County Surveyor James S. James.

In the two-day count of July 10 and 11, 29,443 cars passed the El Camino Real—Woodside road point going toward and from Menlo Park. At the same time, 7,993 cars were crossing the highway to and from the Woodside road.

Second in importance was the Jefferson avenue-El Camino Real point, which saw 27,227 cars going in both directions. Crosswise traffic to and from Emerald Lake totaled 3,340 cars.

The third busiest spot was El Camino Real at the northerly city limits. The number of cars passing that point in both directions was 26,447 for the two days.

Sunday traffic at several of the important points on El Camino Real was as follows, for comparison:

|----------------------|--------|
| Colma                | 24,763 |
| Lawndale             | 23,510 |
| San Bruno            | 21,514 |
| San Mateo (16th av.) | 17,895 |
| Redwood City (5pts.) | 17,884 |
| Menlo Park           | 17,674 |

The survey revealed the startling information that El Camino Real remains the heaviest travelled road in the county despite the building of the $10,000,000 Bayshore highway. It indicates that El Camino Real is principally used by industry and local traffic, whereas the Bayshore is used by persons intent on a through run from San Francisco to Redwood City, or vice versa.

The purpose of the survey is to determine the road needs of the peninsula and will be used by the state as well as the supervisors and planning commission.

Local Nimrods Preparing For Deer Season Opening, August 1

With the opening of deer season set for August 1, local nimrods are oiling guns and getting equipment ready. The opinion of sportsmen is that hunting on the first day will not be as good as in past years. The "jack" lighting of deer by different game law offenders will be responsible for scarcity of bucks brought in on August 1.

According to Game Warden Macpherson Lough, hunting in the foothills of Santa Clara, San Mateo and Santa Cruz counties should be fair. Hunters must remember, however, that according to the new "trespass law," they must have written permits from the owners of the property on which they are hunting.

Mendocino Suffers
Mendocino county, the mecca of thousands of deer hunters every season, has suffered more from the spot-lighting of deer than any other county. The unemployed inhabitants of this district have begun to rely on the deer as a source of food. As August 1 will probably find a majority of hunters in that region returning without the "bacon."

Next month should find many sportsmen venturing afield as August is a great month for combined deer hunting and fishing.

Work Proceeding On Creek Culvert

Forms are being constructed for the barrel of the culvert which is to replace the bridge at the Middlefield road crossing of San Francisco creek. In about a week concrete will be poured, and the entire job is scheduled to be completed in five fall.

Four carpenters are engaged in the present phase of the operation, which is under the direction of W. O. Tyson, Redwood City contractor.

It is planned to make the improvement without interrupting traffic over the bridge. A detour road will be provided on the earth fill placed on the easterly side of the existing structure.

The contract price of the culvert construction was $11,600, of which Palo Alto and Santa Clara and San Mateo counties will contribute equal shares.

Palo Alto will improve Middlefield road and Palo Alto avenue to make the entrance on the city's side correspond in width with the Middlefield crossing, whose roadway will be 42 feet. This separate job will cost something like $700.

MAKES HOME HERE
Vincent Hallinan, the widely known attorney of San Francisco, has become a resident of Redwood City, having a home at Emerald Lake. He registered yesterday, that he may be able to vote for local candidates.

Retired Naval Man Injured In Crash

SAN MATEO, July 20.—In an automobile accident at El Camino Real and Tilton avenue late yesterday, lives of three persons prominent on the peninsula were menaced and a retired naval officer was seriously hurt.

The injured man was James Stefferud, 61, of Chemetka Park, near Los Gatos. In the other car were Miss Azalea Hastings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hastings; her fiancé, Thomas H. Breeze Jr., and his father, San Francisco attorney, Miss Hastings, who was driving the Breeze car, lives at 512 Warren road, San Mateo, and the Breeze home is at 252 Roblan avenue, Hillsborough.

Stefferud was driving south on El Camino Real and the car driven by Miss Hastings came into the intersection on the west from Tilton avenue. The Stefferud car was overturned. He was taken to Mills Memorial Hospital. The occupants of the other car were not hurt.

Menlo Park

The city council met in special $25,800 session Tuesday evening to hear a communication was read from protests on unpaid assessments on City Treasurer J. W. Ryan, asking resolution 31-6, Paraiso Park if he could deliver bonds under resolution 31-3 and 31-2 to the Valley. There being none the usual resolution 31-3 and 31-2 to the Valley. The resolution was adopted authorizing the Paving and Construction Company issuance of bonds amounting to in view of a protest filed by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company. The city attorney advised that there was no other course to pursue than to deliver the bonds and so the document was ordered filed. The chief of police was directed to use his best judgment in collecting unpaid merchant's licenses amounting to $180. The following members were re-appointed on the planning commission for a four year term: A. H. Tupper, Ernest Martin, and F. L. W. McDonald.

Edward Hart, commissioner of health and safety, was appointed health officer to take the place of Dr. Gerlough. Ordinance No. 42, amending portions of sections 1, 3, 4 and 5 of the police ordinance was adopted. The council went into executive session to prepare the budget. Many items in the tentative document as prepared by the city attorney were deleted. It is believed the budget will be ready for adoption on August 9. The council is striving hard to cut the tax rate this year and may be able to do so.

The Native Daughters of the Golden West will give a card party in the new Masonic Hall, Duff and Doyle building, on Monday evening next. Admission 25 cents.

Tomorrow, Saturday, a food sale under the auspices of St. Joseph's Alumni Association, will take place at 10 o'clock. Home made pies, cakes, salads and fruit are to be offered for sale at a bargain. The pretty little girls of the association will be in charge of the affair. The sale is to be in the Piggy Wiggy store.

A retreat for the ladies of the community and other localities will take place at the convent of the Sacred Heart on August 16, 17 and 18. A Jesuit father will preach the sermons.

Tony Bertolucci, owner of the Oak Grove Villa, will open the place on August 1 with a big dinner to his friends on the evening of that date. Italian dinners will be a specialty of the well-known hostelry. The hotel has been closed for the past year.

The Kuck Hotel picnic grounds will be the scene of merriment Sunday when Menlo Park Post, No. 443, American Legion, is to give a jamboree and barbecue. For months the committee has been hard at work on the affair. The post looks forward for a big time on the occasion, as all the posts of the American Legion about the bay region are to attend. Other veteran organizations with their families will be present to swell the throng.

The admission price has been set at 50c, children 25c, to permit everybody to attend. The admission price includes barbecue lunch and dancing. Plenty of parking space will be available. The committee believes they have arranged a real day of fun for all and feel sure that those who do not attend will miss the time of their life.

Those on the committee are F. W. Ellis, chairman; C. M. Hall, George Condos, C. W. Palmer, L. N. Vannell, T. G. Cady, William Feeley, C. H. Johnson and E. Hanuel.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Bearce and their two children, Paul and Esther, have returned to their Menlo Park home after a week at Santa Cruz.

home after a week at Santa Cruz.

The unemployment committee holds meetings every Friday evening at the city hall to prepare for winter when it is thought there will be much suffering. The committee is gathering funds, clothing and data for positions. The committee, after an investigation, finds that there are 116 names on the list of those wanting employment and 24 cases in real need. There is no funds in the treasury, all the money having been expended last winter. The people of Menlo Park are asked to help build up a fund for the coming winter, when it will be sorely needed. Many believe the times are getting much better and in a few months business will be normal.

Real estate men in town report quite a stir in sales, a good sign of returning prosperity. The election of Hoover, which is now quite certain, is the cause of this upward trend.

D. E. O'Keefe, Carmel and Edward O'Keefe, and Miss Ruth Rugard, of Walnut Grove, a schoolmate of Miss O'Keefe at the San Francisco College for Women, will leave on Monday for Los Angeles to witness the Olympic Games. The party is to be gone for ten days.

Menlo Parlor N. S. G. W. and the Native Daughter's parlor had a joint installation last evening. There was a large attendance from the parlors about the bay. The installing officers showed much proficiency in their work. A banquet followed the ceremony.

An artesian well is being drilled at the Cliff estate on Glenwood avenue. The hideous noises made by the machinery is becoming bore-some to the neighbors. We must have water for the flowers. Beer and wine may come later.

A. Wayne Millington for the Assembly Club was organized in Menlo Park yesterday with a membership of fifty admirers of the young attorney. Millington is leading the race for the legislature.

Senator Samuel M. Shortridge will arrive home from Washington today. After a short rest Mr. Shortridge will start a state-wide campaign for re-election. Odds of three to one are now being waged that he will be returned to the capitol.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark J. Loughlin have returned to Menlo Park after a week-end at Salinas with the latter's mother, Mrs. A. Pesante.

DEMAND OF THE HOUR IS THE RE-ELECTION OF MR. HOOVER

The re-election of Herbert Hoover for the second term as President of the United States, is the demand of the hour and the demand of every hour until it is accomplished.

It would be foolish to change the administration at this time while conditions remain as they are. Mr. Hoover is doing all that he possibly can to straighten out the tangle the country is in owing to the economic situation in Europe. He has studied every angle of the depression and has used every force of the government to stop it and bring back prosperity and he is certain to succeed if given another term in the White House.

A change of administration might bring disaster and destroy all that Mr. Hoover is doing, for he has studied the situation and is familiar with conditions and will find a remedy. A new president would have to make an investigation that might take two years to learn what Hoover already knows. In the meantime, the suffering would still go on and bring the country to a state of bankruptcy. It is bad enough as it is but it could be worse.

Whenever the Democrats get into power they at once begin to tinker with the tariff and this has always been disastrous to the business of the country. Factories close, men are thrown out of employment and usually ruin follows in the wake of new tariff laws. The United States is naturally a country that needs protection from the cheap labor of other nations. It must have tariff laws with rates high enough to keep out commodities manufactured by pauper labor, child labor and by those whose standard of living is not on a par with the working man of America. The best interests of the country will be subserved by the re-election of Herbert Hoover—a change may mean disaster.

EMPLOYMENT RELIEF MUST BE PRESSED, SAYS CO. DIRECTOR

The campaign of relief for the county's unemployed must be continued, "not only with unabated but increased vigor, to carry our people through the winter, and, at the least, far into the spring of 1933."

This was the statement made by Edward Macaulay, director of unemployment relief for San Mateo county, in his latest report. His conclusions and recommendations, in part, follow:

"The serious condition of unemployment is increasing and the number of families in need of relief is also increasing. This, I believe, will continue until and a long time after the existing economic depression is ended and until it is well on the upward swing. Even after general conditions are much improved it will take some time for the men, women and children who have been affected to recover—some have gone so far down the road of want, debt, undernourishment and discouragement that moral and physical strength and stamina will be lacking to start a real recovery. The climb back will be slow and difficult and much help will be required.

"Basing my opinion on the assistance received from private funds and subscriptions up to the present time and on the inevitable falling off in the future of such subscriptions, due to further increased financial embarrassment to the donors, I do not believe that we can count on more than $4,000 a month from private subscriptions in the entire county and that figure, although it may seem small is optimistic.

"This will furnish work and inadequate relief for approximately 200 families each month.

"It is roughly estimated that city and municipal work will furnish work sufficient to relieve inadequately 250 families a month. And this will include work in connection with the schools and other work provided by public funds.

"There remain approximately about 1,000 families who will be in need of relief, and, as I have hitherto reported, these are exclusive of those families being helped by the Social Service Commission and other welfare organizations.

"Can these people be helped without assistance from federal funds, state funds, additional taxes or bond issues?

"Federal relief and state relief are not available nor probable. Increased taxes and bond issues are not feasible and it is contrary to our policy to advocate them.

County Work Helpful
"There remains the county work from which since the end of April the unemployed have had considerable benefit. This should not only continue but be increased in order to avoid a greater load of destitution and suffering to the unemployed and impoverished residents of San Mateo county.

"Memorial Park has been able to account for 25 men each week or about one hundred men per month. This particular work at Memorial Park cannot last much longer, but similar projects can be made available, if the board of supervisors will continue to be equally concerned in its desire to relieve the unemployed. For this purpose an appropriation of $2,500 a month would suffice.

"Even with a project similar to Memorial Park approved by the board of supervisors there remains a large, in fact the greater part of the unemployed still to have provision made for their welfare; we might say, for their normal existence—certainly in order to prevent definite deterioration in mind, body and spirit of a large part of our resident population.

Suggestion Repeated
"For this additional work I can but recommend as we have suggested, recommended and reiterated in the past, that a larger part of the skilled labor now being done on the district road work be allotted to the unemployed men.

"If 75 per cent of the labor used on the district road work can be taken from the lists of the unemployed in accordance with their merit, determined by careful investigation, and the men staggered in their assignments to work, the question of unemployment in San Mateo county would be solved. The county committee has the organization and facilities together with the records and histories of the unemployed men to enable it to assign men in accordance with the above, subject of course to the instructions and approval of the board of supervisors.

"Contrary to this recommendation it will be advanced that, if more of the district road work is used for the benefit of the unemployed, other men who have been more or less steadily employed at this work or have been able to will in turn become unemployed and in need. With proper arrangements, such as we are prepared for, this can be avoided. It is a sound and tried policy, now in effect in many of our large industries and corporations to keep as many of their employees as they can by staggering the work and reducing the total amount of pay to an individual but not necessarily reducing the wage rate, so as to permit of the greatest good to the greatest number.

"I have also to suggest that it might be possible, in the one road district where there is little unemployment, to have some of these jobs added to the list of work that goes for the unemployed men from less fortunate districts where the need is greater. Such action would indeed be magnanimous, creditable and worthy of a united county where all sections have joined together to help in the best and most philanthropic and unselfish way possible. It is contrary to the principles and customs of the division of political patronage but it is thoroughly in accord with the principles of public duty, philanthropy and good will."

25,370 AUTOS IN S. M. COUNTY

Registrations Show Loss In State For Half Year Period

Registration of automobiles in San Mateo county for the period from January 1 to June 30, 1932, shows 25,370 cars, according to figures released by the state department of motor vehicles today.

Other count figures were: solid tire trucks, 1161; motorcycles, 106; solid tire trailers, 59, and pneumatic tire trailers, 379.

Motor vehicle registrations showed a loss in California during the half-year of 1932 ending June 30. The loss is the first of consequence recorded since the state began registering automobiles more than 25 years ago.

Fee-paid registrations for all types of vehicles during the six-month period totaled 1,962,960, according to a report filed with Theodore J. Roche, director of the department of motor vehicles, by Russell Bevans, registrar of the department.

The registrations were divided as follows: Automobiles, 1,805,819; solid trucks, 7380; pneumatic trucks, 90,685; motorcycles, 7327; solid trailers, 6528; pneumatic trailers, 44,641.

Bevans said the loss in registrations would be reflected heavily in revenues, thereby adding to the financial burden facing the state because of falling revenues.

The heaviest loss was recorded in pleasure cars. There was a slight gain in trucks and trailers with pneumatic tires but losses in trucks and trailers equipped with solid tires. Motorcycles which have been dropping steadily for several years almost held their own.

Bevans' report revealed that Los Angeles county registered 748,170 of the total of 1,805,819 pleasure cars in the state. San Francisco was second with 134,880 and Alameda third with 131,970.

SOME FIGURES

Regardless of all the stories of light travel on the ocean lanes and of reduced expenditures by the individuals, Americans spent 570 million dollars in foreign lands last year. While they were doing this, visitors to this country spent a little over 112 million dollars, giving the other side a considerable advantage in the exchange of calls. Americans in greatest numbers went to Canada and France. Close to 240,000 of them went abroad where people of this country, at the end of the year, have invested more than 15 billion dollars.

These are figures which do not seem to belong to the day and age. They prove that, despite all stories, a great circulation of money continues. We have in this country 52 million savings depositors; the currency in circulation is 700 million dollars greater than in the boom; last year 16 billion dollars in new life insurance was written; the income of the American people exceeds a billion dollars a week.—Oakland Tribune.

GARDENER KILLS WOMAN EMPLOYER IN COTTAGE ON MENLO PARK ESTATE

Found murdered two months to the day after her husband died, the body of Mrs. Edith Orr Spencer, wealthy Menlo Park widow, was discovered in the head gardener's cottage about 8:30 o'clock yesterday, while the latter, John Viano, lay dead on the cement floor of the garage below.

Police, coroner's and sheriff's deputies called it a case of "murder and suicide."

Mrs. Spencer, about 40 to 45, and widow of the late Franklin M. Spencer, wealthy San Francisco elevator company head, was last seen alive last evening about 5:30 o'clock by Vincent Cruz, 27, the houseboy, when he brought the dinner tray to her bedroom.

Cruz told Dr. J. C. McGovern, San Mateo county coroner, Assistant Attorney Richard O. Bell, Deputy Sheriff Thomas Maloney and Police Chiefs Frank Love of Menlo Park and Edward Farrell of Atherton, that he left her writing letters after he had called for the tray and laid out her pajamas and prepared her bed for the night.

Houseboy Discovers Murderer

This morning, about 8:30, the houseboy again went to her bedroom to serve her breakfast. As he opened the door and saw that the bed had not been occupied during the night, he dropped the tray from fright and ran downstairs to make an investigation.

He summoned Narciso (Willie) Paulino, 35, Filipino assistant gardener. The two searched the grounds for John Viano, about 50, the head gardener, but not finding him about, called upstairs to the living quarters where he resided: "John, John, John."

Shot Through Left Eye

Getting no response, they rushed upstairs and then fell back, startled to find the body of their employer lying dead just inside the door of the living room. She had been shot through the left eye, the bullet passing through the head and falling about four feet from the body. The furniture was in order, indicating that there had been no struggle.

Paulino summoned Police Officer Thomas Kearney of Menlo Park, who called Chief Love.

Coroner McGovern, Deputy Coroner John Layne of Redwood City, and Deputy Sheriff Maloney of Sheriff James J. McGrath's office and others were notified.

Gardener's Body Found

While Maloney, Layne, Farrell and Love looked over the gardener's cottage for clues to the murderer, Officer Roy Hubbard of
